I just received an email requesting an interview with

"Florida Frontiers: The Weekly Radio Magazine of the Florida Historical Society" which airs on public radio stations around the state and that is still in the planning for the day of the reception on March 12th.

Even though Everglades City is a bit off the beaten track (which is one of the things I love about it!) I hope some of you will make the trip, enjoy looking at the Everglades, eat at one of the many wonderful restaurants and come to my reception on the 12th. I look forward to seeing some of you there.

New Paintings

"Mangrove Beauty 1 and 2"
Acrylic diptych 48" x 24" each

"Mangrove Beauty 1 and 2" is a commissioned piece. The paintings will be apart at each end of a large entertainment center but while they are two separate paintings I also wanted to make it a diptych that could be hung together. If you look at each one alone they are very different but when hung as one they make a beautiful single scene.

Other new paintings are always displayed on my New Paintings webpage

The piece "Mangrove Jewel" was auctioned off to help the Children's Hospital in Naples

"Fishing in The Mangroves" Oil 24" x 20"

“Naples Beach Welcome” Oil 12” x 9”

during the ‘3rd on Canvas’ plein air paint out. It was a pleasure to paint with 40 other artists, many well known and renowned. The auction party was great fun and we raised about $50,000 in total.

I am hoping that I will have a lot more time to paint as our busy season starts to quiet down soon and look forward to sharing some of the new work with you in another month or two.

Warm regards,

Carol
